1. I have delivered to Mr. Flanagan, Counsel to Senator McCarthy, the Director's letter of 21 September informing the Senator that a Board was established and was meeting in the [redacted]. In a chance meeting with the Senator, he asked Mr. Flanagan whether I had any views on Beria, but he received a non-committal reply.

2. Senator Knowland is scheduled to arrive in Washington, via London, at noon on Thursday, 1 October. He is scheduled to be here for approximately one week. His office suggests that Saturday, 3 October, would be an excellent opportunity for a meeting as he will be pretty well tied up Thursday and Friday.

3. On instruction from Mr. Kirkpatrick, I have suggested to the Director's office that if they receive any calls for the Director from Mr. Kinnaly, Assistant to Congressman McCormack, they pass the call through to me in view of Mr. Kinnaly's long record of harrassing Directors on minor points.
